PIX-FarmCruiser® Agricultural Rubber Tracks

PIX Transmissions Ltd., one of the world's leading power transmission solution providers has become the first Indian company to commence the production and launch of heavy-duty rubber tracks for agricultural applications. FarmCruiser® is an outcome of tired-less efforts of its core R&D Team at "Centre of Technology Advancement". The field trials of the product have been encouraging, with an edge over the other tracks available in the market.
